Mr. Conway on the Devil and Demonology.

Mr. Conway was greeted by another large and select audience last evening upon the occasion of the last lecture or his course. The lecture was by far the ablest, and most interesting of the Rubber Stamps, at 201 Race st. jy14-tf ablest, and most interesting of the course, and had their order been reversed, and this lecture been given upon the first night, the attendance would undoubtedly have been much larger during the remainder of the course. The main idea with Mr. Conway, and which he beautifuly illustrated by numerous anecdotes and quotations from eminent authors, was that the demons, spirite, genii, and such creatures of the fancy, were personified hungers, thirsts, diseases, &c. The evil they did man was incidental only. The way to avoid them was to feel them. Give them the picked fruit and thus save the orchard. This was really the origin of sacrifices. The detities expressed sun, sky, air, light, &c. The demons the sanstroke, the storm and the lightning. The devits in which men believe are explained by these. It has now been definitely decided that Mr. Conway will return to this city sometime in November, and deliver a second series of lectures, on "St. George and the Dragon," "The Real and Ideal," and "The Fossil Man." course. and had their order been Amusements.

THE GRAND OPERA-HOUSE.-Miss Fannie Davenport made her first appearance in this city for many years last night. The play was "The School for Scandal;" her character that of "Lady Teazle." Miss Davenport departed from most of the traditional renditions of this most of the traditional renditions of this celebrated character, and with all made a very acceptable "Lady Teazle." The scene in the fourth act where her ladyship is discovered behind the screen in "Joseph Suriace's" room, was made very effective by Miss Davenport and redeemed many of the other faults of the play.

Mr. A. D. Bradley, as "Sir Peter," was, due difference to Miss Davenport and others, the "star" of the evening.

To-night Miss Davenport appears as "Frou Frou."

tional drama of the "Hidden Hand" will be given, with Miss Gussle DeForrest in the leading role. As has been stated before, Miss DeForrest has won some-thing of a reputation in this play, and it will be a gratification to her many friends to be afforded this opportunity of seeing her in a chosen character.

WOOD'S THEATER.—Mr. Raymond drew an immense auclence last evening, many who were crowded out last week avail-ing themselves of this opportunity of seeing the matchless "Col. Sellers." It was indeed a talented piece of acting, and the support of Mr. Macquiey's company was all that any star could wish, they, speaking figuratively, having mellowed to their work, and in consequence the play last evening ran as smouthly as anything put upon our stage for years. "Mulberry Sellers" again to-night.

THE NATIONAL .- The attendance at THE NATIONAL—The attendance at this house last evening was very large, the great attraction being the sensational play of "Sharkey, the Detective," with Mr. Charles F. Nichols as the hero, "Jem Sharkey." Mr. Nichols is an ac or of considerable ability, and acquitted himself last evening in a very creatable manner, winning many well-meserved rounds of applause. "Sharkey" again to-night.

THE CHEAPEST.

Reliable articles like Dr. Prioc. Cream Baking Powder and True Flavoringa, Vanilla, L. mon, Orange, Ginger, etc., that have stood the test of the best judges in the courtry, at a fair price, are the cheapest in the long run, if health is to be considered. Pure goods must have a fair valuation, adulterated articles are the only kinds that can be sold cheap; and many dealers sell such mixtures in preference to strictly pure articles, as mey afford a better profit.

On Thursday next, October 18th, at 1 o'clock, there will be a public sale of o'clock, there will be a public sale of splendid improved and unimproved bus-ness property, southeast corner of Lud-low and Pearl, Second and Front streets. MISS GUSSIE DE FORREST, the leading aniss Gussie De Forkes, the feating lady at the Grand Opera-house, will ap-pear as "Capitola, the Newsboy and Heiress," in the play of "The Hidden Hand," at the matinee to-morrow. Miss De Forrest oreated quite a sensation in this part in the East last season, and to-morrow's performance, it is expected. morrow's performance, it is expected, will greatly increase her local fame.
